-Patience is the most important virtue. Not everyone will have the same deadlines or priorities. So planning key! -Knowing your audience is key. More important than the message, it is how it is delivered so that the audience is able to understand, disseminate and implement it Why do you want to serve as a District leader? To further my leadership skills and prepare myself for a leadership position in my professional life In your opinion, what are the District mission's major objectives and how would you work to achieve them? District Mission: We build new clubs and support all clubs in achieving excellence. With my zeal to always achieve more, I will support and motivate area directors, clubs, and individuals to strive for excellence in achieving their club and personal goals. I will help with resources, time and guidance at every step to the best of my ability and knowledge.	NA
