Learning in Writing a Speech with Purpose

Part 2: Write An Engaging Speech

In this project you will learn strategies for selecting a topic, defining a purpose, and producing a well-written and organized speech. You will learn different organizational structures for speeches, and how to create clear transitions between sections of your speech.

Your Assignment

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to learn or review basic methods for writing a speech with a defined purpose and to present a well-organized speech on any topic.

Overview: Select a topic that appeals to you. It can be anything. Be sure your topic is narrow enough to be an effective 5- to 7-minute speech.

Clearly define your topic and consider your goal for your speech. Before you organize your speech, identify and express your purpose in a single sentence. Practice your speech and refine its organization. Present your speech at a club meeting.

2. Learning Modules. Not just text.

Part 2: Write An Engaging Speech

Part 3: Know Your Purpose

Before you begin to write, answer three questions:

What is the most important thing I want to say?

- Choose one thing.

Why does it matter to my audience?

- Consider only consequential reasons for audience members' attention and concern.

What do I want people to hold in their hearts and minds long after my speech?

- Identify one thing.

Before You Move On

Select a topic for your speech that is narrow enough to cover in your speaking time. For example, the topic of “dogs” is so broad that a 5- to 7-minute speech would appear shallow. Narrowing your topic to “young Golden Retrievers” allows you to develop a speech that will meet a defined, specific purpose.

Complete the Topic and Purpose Worksheet to choose a strong topic and identify your general and specific purposes.

Schedule your speech with the Vice President Education.

Write your speech. Focus on creating strong content that supports your topic and your purpose.

Rehearse your speech.
