

Tips for Vice Presidents, Education

Challenge A Members are not signing up or volunteering for meeting roles and doing Pathways project speeches.

1. Encourage your members to set specific goals for completing Pathways levels. Establishing goals will give members another reason to move through their Path.
2. Provide your members with a Checklist for their Path. Word (doc), Word (docx) and fillable PDFs are available on the District 60 <https://www.toastmasters60.com> website under the Pathways tab.
3. In Pathways, member achievement is acknowledged frequently because recognition increases motivation. Each time members complete a level, they earn a digital badge and certificate on Base Camp. Members and Base Camp managers (Vice President Education, President, and Secretary) can download or print these certificates. Each time a member completes a path, they receive the accolade of Proficient, signifying their demonstrated expertise. For example, a member who completes Presentation Mastery is Presentation Mastery Proficient.

Challenge B You are finding the role of Vice President, Education quite demanding

As your club's Vice President, Education, your workload gets heavy at times. Remember, you are in a position to gain excellent leadership experience and learn how a Toastmasters club works. If you find that the burden is too heavy, you can always ask for a volunteer assistant to help you; this is a great way to teach someone about the Toastmasters education program and groom a successor to run for the office when the next Executive Committee is elected.

Challenge C Members are struggling with Pathways navigation.

1. Pick one or two of your Pathways-savvy member to assist members with their navigation issues.
2. Encourage your members to check out the various Reference Guides, Videos and Forms which can be found on the District 60 <https://www.toastmasters60.com> website under the Pathways tab.
